MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to Rule 6 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, respondents move for an extension of time in which to file an answer to the petition. In support thereof, respondents state the following:

1. The petitioner, Henry W. Glanding, Jr., has applied for federal habeas relief, alleging his counsel rendered constitutionally defective assistance in his state court criminal proceedings. D.I. 1. By the terms of the Court's order, the answer is due to be filed on December 7, 2007.

2. Counsel has been, and continues to be, diligently working on numerous cases before this Court and the state courts. In the past week, counsel has filed answering briefs in two state court matters and an answer to a petition for federal habeas. Additionally, counsel was ill for much of the preceding week. Counsel is doing his best to prioritize cases by date received. Further, the Chief of the Appeals Division must review all filings prior to submission and has been unable to do so due to his own substantial caseload. In light of the situation, additional time is needed to complete the answer and have it reviewed in the ordinary course of business.

3. Under Habeas Rule 4, the Court has the discretion to give respondents an extension of time exceeding the 40-day limit in Civil Rule 81(a)(2). Clutchette v. Rushen, 770 F.2d 1469, 1473-74 & n.4 (9th Cir. 1985); Kramer v. Jenkins, 108 F.R.D. 429, 431-32 (N.D. Ill. 1985). The comment to Rule 4 expressly states that the district court has "the discretion to take into account various factors such as the respondent's workload" in determining the period of time that should be allowed to answer the petition.

4. This is respondents' second request for an extension of time in this case.

5. Respondents submit that an extension of time to and including December 14, 2007, in which to file an answer is reasonable. Respondents submit herewith a proposed order.
